

K-love serves thousands of people with family friendly programming that my family and I enjoy tremendously. We would be very saddened if it was discontinued since my community only has 3 christian stations. One that is from another town that is for my teens, a second that is more for older listeners and then there's K-LOVE with more contemporary music and messages. please take this into consideration. Thank you, Barbara Jurado and family.